

This is to certify that _____ has purchased _____ square feet of land towards what will become the Seres Centre for Climate Change Education and Sustainable Development in Guatemala.

Compassion Fruit Society is establishing the Seres Centre - a learning centre and demonstration campus to help rural communities in Guatemala build resilience to climate change. An ideal property has been found near the city of Chimaltenango, Guatemala. The property is 135 acres, and provides the perfect location to build the Seres Centre, demonstration campus and develop organic agricultural crops that will provide long-term financial support for the project.

This certificate and the property it represents were purchased in support of the Seres Centre. Each donation assists towards the purchase of this land, helping us to develop thriving, sustainable, liveable communities throughout Guatemala and Central America.

Compassion Fruit Society is a Canadian Registered Charity. This "purchase" of land in Guatemala is a donation to Seres Centre to acquire land to establish the Climate Change Education Centre.
